

RELIGIOUS APPOINTMENTS.

METHODIST.
Rev. C. H. JAMES, Pastor.
Irvington, First and Third Sundays, 11 A. M.
Second and Fourth Sundays, 8 P. M.
Prayer meeting, Wednesday night, 7:30 P. M.
White Stone, First and Third Sundays, 11 A. M.
Second and Fourth Sundays, 8 P. M.
Pleasant Hill, Second Sunday, 1 P. M.
Poplar Neck, Fourth Sunday, 3 P. M.

W. H. H. BROTHER, Pastor.
White Marsh, First Sunday, 11 A. M., Third Sunday, 3 P. M.
Rehoboth, First Sunday, 11 A. M., Third Sunday, 3 P. M.
Bluff Point, First Sunday, 7:30 P. M., Fifth Sunday, 11 A. M.
Eagle, Second Sunday, 11 A. M., Fourth Sunday, 3 P. M.
Bether, Second Sunday, 3 P. M., Fourth Sunday, 11 A. M.

BAPTIST.
Rev. F. W. CLAYBROOK, Pastor.
Irvington, First and Third Sundays, 11 A. M.
Second and Fourth Sundays, 8 P. M.
Wicomico, First and Third Sundays, 11 A. M.
Kilmarnock, Second and Fourth Sundays, 11 A. M.
Bluff Point Church, Fourth Sunday, 1:30 P. M.

Rev. G. V. BRADLEY, Pastor.
White Stone, First and Third Sundays, 11 A. M.
Second and Fourth Sundays, 8 P. M.
Pleasant Hill, Second and Fourth Sundays, 11 A. M.
Fleets Island, Second and Fourth Sundays, 11 A. M.
First and Third Sundays, 8 P. M.

PRESBYTERIAN.
Rev. H. L. WALKER, Pastor.
Weems, Second and Third Sundays, 11 A. M. and 8 P. M.

METHODIST PROTESTANT.
Rev. J. W. PARIS, Pastor.
Wicomico, First and Third Sundays, 8:30 P. M.
Second and Fourth Sundays, 11 A. M.
Riverton, First and Third Sundays, 11 A. M.
Sampson's Wharf, School House, Second and Fourth Sundays, 11:30 P. M.

EPISCOPAL.
Rev. GRANVILLE B. MICO, Pastor.
White Chapel, First and Third Sundays, 11 A. M.
Trinity, First and Third Sundays, 11 A. M.
Fourth Sunday, 11 A. M.
Grace, Second Sunday, 11 A. M., Fourth Sunday, 3 P. M.

LOCAL MENTION.
F. L. Wagner, Editor Local Correspondence.

All communications should be addressed to the VIRGINIA CITIZEN, Irvington, Va.

Aid Society tonight (Friday) at home of Mrs. O. R. Hopkins.

Dr. T. S. D. Covington, of Lillian, was doing dental work in this village Friday and Saturday.

Stops the Cough and Works off the Cold, Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No cure, no pay. Price 25 cents.

Miss Lillian Roberts entertained a goodly number of her friends at her home Tuesday evening.

Miss Moore, of Dorchester county, Md., is visiting Miss Pearl Dix, just having visited friends and relatives at Molok.

Cherry Greener, the new up-to-date and great specific for coughs, is the one once means always. Be convinced and try it.

Mrs. James Bussell and daughter, Miss Eva, returned Wednesday from Baltimore, where they have been visiting for the past two weeks.

Mr. Blackwell, the well-known traveling salesman of the Robt. A. Woolf-Draper Fertilizer Company, of Baltimore, was in the village Friday.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY
Take Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets. All the druggists sell this money if it fails to cure. E. W. Groves' signature is on each box.

A letter just received from Grand Master W. T. Baldwin states that the Old Fellows' entertainment here on February 26th.

Visitors seen here of late: Dr. M. B. Bruce, W. B. Sanders, Jas. L. Havens, L. G. Gill, E. S. Hitchcock, Jas. E. Sanders, Jr., Florence Timby, Frank Gunther, Everett Brent.

Telegraph Bottle-Ache Drops
Cures tooth-ache by bottled electricity, as it were. Great relief. Only 10 cts. Jas. Baily & Son, Baltimore, Md.

Mr. Henry Mills, of the Northern Neck Telephone Company, has placed a long distance instrument in the Irvington office, for which the CITIZEN is duly thankful.

Late arrivals at Irvington Beach Hotel: Henry Mills, Dr. T. S. D. Covington, B. F. Hart, G. N. Anderson, J. H. K. Burgwin, Thaddeus DuVal, Capt. C. O. Sneed, W. E. Walker, S. G. Daniel, Zack Street, Mr. Redding, Mr. Saunders.

When you take a physic that is mild and gentle, easy to take and pleasant in effect use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Price, 25 cents. Samples free. Every box guaranteed. For sale by T. J. Willing & Co., Irvington; Geo. W. Sanders, White Stone; W. H. Harding & Bro., Weems.

A friend who had something to sell placed an ad. in the CITIZEN last week, to run "till forced." Just before going to press we received orders to take it out, as he had sold out. So much for having a good advertising medium; we lost an ad.

T. J. Willing & Co., Irvington; Geo. W. Sanders, White Stone; W. H. Harding & Bro., Weems; will refund you your money if you are not satisfied after using Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They cure disorders of the stomach, biliousness, constipation and headache. Price, 25 cents. Samples free.

Col. Henry Hersey Andrew, who is well known here and who resided here for some time with his wife, now divorced, was married again to Miss Mary Raymond Garretson, of New York, on January 16. He and bride have gone to Europe to spend several months.—The Free Lance.

Stop that Pain
By going to the old Drug Stand and getting what is needed. Also cures for coughs, colds, general debility, weakness, chills, dyspepsia, piles, sores, neuralgia and kidney and bladder troubles. We have Lydia E. Pinkham's, Dr. King's and Dr. Pierce's medicines and Swamp Root as specialties. Come and be healed.

T. J. Willing & Co., Irvington; Geo. W. Sanders, White Stone; W. H. Harding & Bro., Weems.

The many friends of Captain W. L. Messick were glad to greet him on his arrival from the Baltimore hospital, where he has been for the past month, Tuesday morning. Captain Messick, though greatly improved, is not yet in sound health. Mrs. Ella Messick has also returned from the hospital.

The greatest danger from colds and grippe is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. It will cure a cold or an attack of grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by T. J. Willing & Co., Irvington; Geo. W. Sanders, White Stone; W. H. Harding & Bro., Weems.

1901 FEBRUARY 1901
Su. Mo. Tu. We. Th. Fri. Sat.

3 4 5 6 7 8 9

10 11 12 13 14 15 16

17 18 19 20 21 22 23

24 25 26 27 28

MOON'S PHASES.
Full 3 10:30 New 18 9:41
First 11 1:15 Last 25 11:24
Quarter 11 11:24 Quarter 25 11:24

This signature is on every box of the genuine Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets the remedy that cures a cold in one day

An obituary notice, signed "Carrie," is not published because writer's name and address were not attached to letter. Obituary notices are charged for at one-half regular rates. It should not be understood that news announcements of deaths, with a reasonable amount of space for comment, are charged for; we desire these as news items, but obituaries and memorials are charged for by all papers, as they are more of personal interest to the relatives of the deceased than to the general public.

Will Broom His Business.
S. Lavel, a merchant, of Dallas, Tex., writes: "I thought I would give up business, after four years of suffering from general debility brought on by overwork and long hours, but after bottles of Electric Bitters gave me new life. I can now eat, sleep, sleep well and feel like working all the time. It's the best medicine on earth." It's a wonderful tonic and health builder for tired, weak, sickly and run-down people. Try it. Satisfaction guaranteed. Only 50c at T. J. Willing & Son's, Irvington; L. D. Stoenham's, Molok; T. C. Bland's, Rehoboth Church.

Mr. Raleigh F. Haydon, late of Sterling, Loudoun county, but formerly of this place, settled on a short stay at the Hotel Porto Rico, where he has secured an appointment from the United States government in the school system of the island. Mr. Haydon has many friends and acquaintances down there, having spent five years as secretary to U. S. Consul L. R. Stuart on the island during Harrison's administration.

"Fitz," as he is called here, has no more place, is to be congratulated that his merits have received recognition at the hands of an administration with whose politics he is not in sympathy.

A Convincing Answer.
"I hobbled into Mr. Blackman's drug store one evening," says Wesley Nelson, of Hamilton, Ga., "and he asked me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with which I had suffered for a long time. I told him I had no faith in any medicine as they all failed. He said: 'Well if Chamberlain's Pain Balm does not help you, you need not pay for it.' I took a bottle of it home and used it according to the directions and in one week I was cured, and have not since been troubled with rheumatism."

Sold by T. J. Willing & Co., Irvington; Geo. W. Sanders, White Stone; W. H. Harding & Bro., Weems.

CAUGHT ON THE FLY.
C. S. Beebe, who is engaged in a large way in the lumber business in Baltimore, has made a new assignment. Several Rappahannock gentlemen will lose by this assignment.

Capt. Mason Gouley, of Steamer Lancaster, who has been sick at his home in Fredericksburg, is out again, and Capt. Dan Davis, who has recovered from the injuries received in the collision of the Essex and Potomac, is also at his post on the Essex.

The Chesapeake Bay Fishermen's Association met in Baltimore last Friday and elected the following officers: Geo. P. Squires, president; Albert Morris, vice-president; Geo. N. Reed, secretary; Jno. B. Hinton, treasurer. The President is from Lancaster county, Va., and the other officers from Northumberland county, Va.

The election and fair are over, but Xmas is coming, and those who were displeased with the past as well as those that were pleased, will do well to prepare for the future. In view of this the old firm, as usual, is having the goodie come in advance, some already for use and some to be prepared as for a gift. They are cordially invited to come and see in time, but don't all come at once.

T. J. HAYDON & SON, Irvington, Va.

WEEMS COUNCIL, Jr. O. U. A. M.
At the last meeting of Weems Council, No. 100, Jr. O. U. A. M., the following officers were installed for the coming six months:

E. W. Brewington, Councilor; Peter Bittner, Vice-Councilor; S. C. Thomas, Treasurer; Jeff Ashburn, Outside Sentinel; Charlie Damerl, Inside Sentinel; L. J. Heath, R. S. Mitchell and A. P. Garner, Trustees; Will Schools, Conductor; Owen Owen, Warden; O. R. Hopkins, Financial Secretary; W. T. White, Recording Secretary; Geo. Bittner, Assistant Recording Secretary; L. J. Heath, Chaplain.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That Weems Council, No. 100, Jr. O. U. A. M., does hereby extend its greetings and best wishes to its new sister, Irvington Council, No. 66, and promises her all the help in its power.

Resolved 2nd, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to Irvington Council, a copy to be inserted in the VIRGINIA CITIZEN and a copy be spread upon our minutes.

Working Overtime.
Eight hour laws are ignored by these tireless, little workers—Mr. King's New Life Pills. Millions are always at work, night and day, curing Indigestion, Biliousness, Constipation, Sick Headache and all Stomach, Liver and Bowel troubles. Easy, pleasant, safe, sure. Only 50c at T. J. Willing & Son's, Irvington; L. D. Stoenham's, Molok; T. C. Bland's, Rehoboth Church.

HICKS' FEBRUARY FORECASTS.
The first storm period in February is central on the 4th, covering the 2nd to 7th. The first stages will be warm in most sections, with low barometer, and rain and thunder southward, but the period will culminate in heavy sleet and snow, a high barometer and rushing, blizzardous winds down from the northwest. Wintry disagreeable weather will follow after these storms quiet up to the reactionary storm days central on the 10th and 11th. On and about these dates there will be marked changes to falling barometer, warmer weather and more storms of rain and snow. Another decided change to colder, with high barometer and north-west winds, will come at the close of these reactionary storms.

The next regular storm period extends from the 14th to the 18th. The disturbances beginning about the 16th, 17th and 18th will not subside until after the 19th and 20th. The hardest storms may be expected from Monday the 18th to Wednesday the 20th. Continued unsettled weather with squalls of rain and snow will likely prevail into and through the reactionary storm days, 21st to 23rd, after which very wintry temperatures for the season may be expected very generally. Sudden blasts of cold following on the heels of warm rains and thunder will be most natural through last part of February.

NOTICE THESE:
Divorce Order of Publication.
Standard Gas Lamps. See ad. of S. B. Griffith.
Woman help wanted by Mrs. G. P. Squires.
Man and woman wanted by Mrs. W. McCh. Lee.
Fred L. Wagner, Irvington, is prepared to execute bonds for officials and others desiring surety.
J. F. Snow, merchant at Wicomico Church, is advertising certain goods at cost.

E. W. Groves
This signature is on every box of the genuine Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets the remedy that cures a cold in one day

Lancaster County.

WEEMS.
Mrs. L. E. Walker, of Baltimore, who has been critically ill with the jaundice for two months, is improving. Mrs. Walker is well known here, having spent several summers at the home of Mrs. E. C. Cross.

Mr. and Mrs. John Padgett are rejoicing over a recent addition to their family circle. It is a girl.

BOER.
The recent warm weather has caused the ice to melt, much to the disappointment of the skaters and those who wished to fill their iceboxes.

Miss Jennie Ball is teaching in the family of C. R. Harper.

Miss Jennie Ball has returned home from Baltimore, where she spent the holidays.

Mrs. R. T. Peirce is quite sick with the grip.

Miss Ella Carter has returned to our neighborhood, after a short stay of several weeks on account of her father's illness, who we are glad to learn is improving.

Misses Lizzie Sneed and Hattie Hamill, also Messrs. A. S. Mitchell and Harry Hamill, visited "Beudley," the home of Jas. Ball, last Sunday.

We are sorry to report that little Octavia Ball is quite sick.

ANTI-RAPPE.
There is considerable interest and feeling being manifested in this locality over the attempt on the part of some parties to take up some natural shore in Sheepshead Hole.

Arthur Treake has started a large oyster house here.

Those on the sick list are: J. S. Buchan, H. M. Robins and Leonard Payne.

The oyster market is fairly good, and the fishermen are busy getting ready for their spring work.

H. E. Robertson's little son, Willie, is improving.

Mrs. Mary Holmes is quite sick at this writing.

Elmer Treake returned home from Baltimore yesterday where he has been to see his mother. She expects to return from the hospital Wednesday.

During the absence of one of our bellies we notice the boys going up and down the roads with drooping heads.

Capt. A. J. Powell has returned from Baltimore and reports the safe delivery of Captain Brack Chilton, while getting stakes up Corrotoman, lost a raft of twenty.

The Stonewall-Jackson Jr. O. U. A. M. met Friday night 18th, and W. B. Sanders was taken into the order. As the weather was very inclement the Juniors did not meet last Friday night but all expect a large crowd at the next meeting.

UNCLES SAM.
IBERIS—BAD ACCIDENT.

While crossing the Corrotoman river, from Millenbeck to Merry Point, Thursday, Capt. Wm. Farinolt, of Baltimore, narrowly escaped drowning, his horse taking fright and backing overboard from the ferryboat while he was seated in the vehicle. When half way across the river, which is about half-a-mile wide, the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr. Davis and Capt. Farinolt were all overboard together. In some way Capt. Farinolt got out of the buggy and Mr. Davis swam to the boat, but could not get in for some time. After getting in the boat he threw the Captain an oar. He now found himself in the boat with nothing to paddle with, but still keeping his presence of mind he picked up a large piece of lumber, used as a walking board, and the horse began to back. Mr. Davis, the ferryman, was behind the horse and buggy, and the boat and tried to stop the buggy, but the horse continued to back knocking Mr. Davis overboard under the buggy. By this time horses, buggy, Mr